

Contents of a Dead Man's Pocket Comic strip:

Today, with a partner you will plan a comic strip version of Contents of a Dead Man's Pocket. Your comic strip must include:

- All elements of a narrative plot structure:
 - Exposition
 - Inciting incident
 - Rising Action
 - Climax
 - Falling Action
 - Denouement
- Five thoughts or statements by characters (Tom and Clare)
- Full Color Drawings

Your comic may use 1-3 comic strip templates (provided in class)

Due by the end of class:

- Comic book plan

Due by the day of the test (Friday):

- Comic strip

Category	Advanced-4	Proficient-3	Basic2	Below Standard1-0
Elements of Plot	Scenes for each element of plot structure are present. Elements which benefit from the development of several scenes have several pictures drawn to fully develop the story.	Scenes for each element of plot structure are present. Elements which require several scenes have several pictures drawn to fully develop the story.	Scenes for each element of plot structure are present.	Some scenes for an element of plot structure are missing.
Scene Selection	The scenes selected show a story summary which is insightful and thoughtful to important details.	The scenes selected show a well developed understanding of the story.	The scenes selected show a basic understanding of the overall story.	The scenes selected do not show comprehension of the story overall. Major events are missing.
Presentation	The scenes are in full color, all necessary portions are shown (characters and setting), and more than 5 thoughts or dialogue bubbles are correctly inserted. It is apparent that students have taken their time on the project	The scenes are in full color, all necessary portions are shown (characters and setting), and 5 thoughts or dialogue bubbles are correctly inserted. It is apparent that students have taken sufficient time to complete the project	The scenes are mostly in color, many necessary portions are shown (characters and setting), and around 5 thoughts or dialogue bubbles are correctly inserted. It is apparent that students have taken some time to complete the project	The scenes are in black and white, not all characters and setting are developed, and less than 5 thought /dialogue bubbles are present. It appears that students did not spend time outside of class to fully develop work